

An INVITATION to our Celebratory Fundraising Event

You are warmly invited to celebrate the British Government's first ever formal approval of A. S. Neill and Summerhill - the 2007 Ofsted Inspection and the recent successful BBC television drama based on life and events at the school.

The celebration will take place on Wednesday 19th March 7pm-10pm

Conway Hall, 25 Red Lion Square,
London WC1R 4RL (Holborn tube station)

It will be a cabaret style event including humorous readings from the 1999 and 2007 Ofsted reports, an excerpt from the recently broadcast TV drama, a quiz, auction of gifts and promises - and to see us out in style, several Summerhill bands. A new CD will be on sale.

Tickets £25 (concessions £12.50)
to cover admission, a glass of wine and snacks

Please make cheques payable to the A. S. Neill Summerhill Trust.
Send to Summerhill School, Westward Ho, Leiston, Suffolk, IP16 4HY.
Your ticket will be available for you to collect on the night.
Funds raised will go towards bursaries for children who could not otherwise afford to attend Summerhill and to ongoing work to promote children's democratic participation in state schools.

We really hope you will come along and join in the fun!
